

Please bear with us as we rebuild our site. We got bored with the old one, so we decided to start over.

As we add things to the site, we will make sure to set them up.

Registration is open so you can setup your account. Make sure you use a valid e-mail address. Without one you will not receive the validation e-mail you need to activate your account.

We hope everybody will register as some sections or parts of sections will only be open to registered users. This will include parts of the download section, and some of the games. Those sections will be viewable but not playable or able to download.

The Private Message system is only open to Registered Users, as will some of the other things we will be bringing online. We hope to add some blogging capability for our users as well as other interesting things.

We look forward to expanding the site.
